

CENTRE OF BRITAIN

HALTWHISTLE

-
1. All 16 Points of the compass have equidistant opposites -
- |                                       |                      |            |                       |        |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------|------------|-----------------------|--------|
| N.                                    | North Orkney         | 290 MILES  | Portland Bill, Dorset | S.     |
| N.N.W.                                | North Rona           | 290 MILES  | Eastbourne, Sussex    | S.S.E. |
| N.W.                                  | North Uist, Hebrides | 230 MILES  | Aldeburgh, Suffolk    | S.E.   |
| W.N.W.                                | Ayr                  | 80 MILES   | Whitby                | E.S.E. |
| W.                                    | Bowness on Solway    | 36.5 MILES | Wallsend              | E.     |
| ————— (Route of Hadrian's Wall) ————— |                      |            |                       |        |
| W.S.W.                                | Maryport             | 40 MILES   | Newbiggin by the Sea  | E.N.E. |
| S.W.                                  | Ravenglass           | 50 MILES   | Alnmouth              | N.E.   |
| S.S.W.                                | Ulverston            | 50 MILES   | Holy Island           | N.N.E. |
2. Inner circle - Equidistant from Haltwhistle to Meriden (Official Centre of England), Centre of Wales, Centre of Northern Ireland and the Forest of Atholl (Official Centre of Scotland).
3. Outer Circle - Equidistant from Haltwhistle to the extremities of the British Isles and Ireland, Jersey, Scilly Isles, Fastnet, Bantry Bay and Shetland.
-